Lately...

...there's been a disturbance in the lab.

At first I didn't notice.

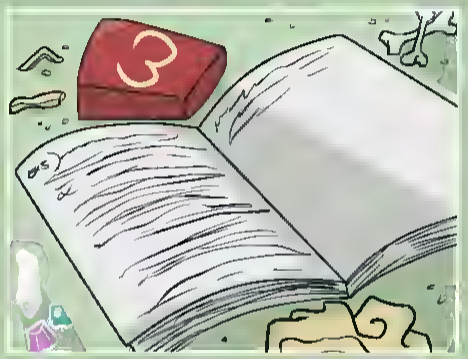
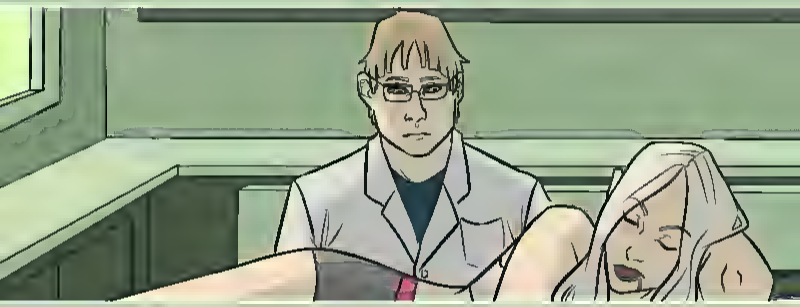
But then I started to find things where they shouldn't be.

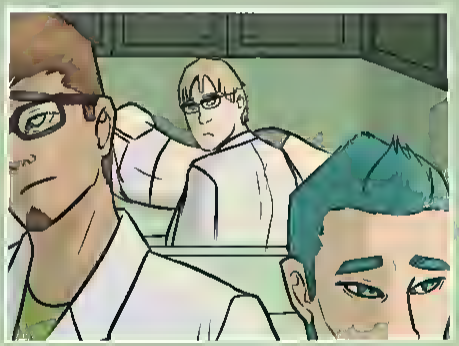


So much so that it started to interfere with my work.



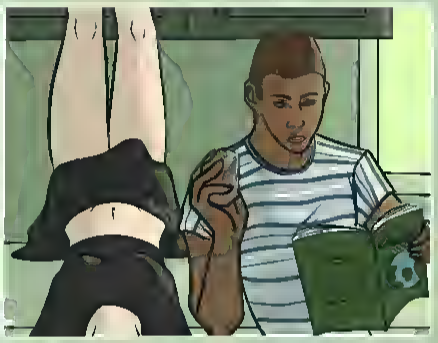
And I could turn a blind eye no longer.

The athers wan't say anything because they're scared.



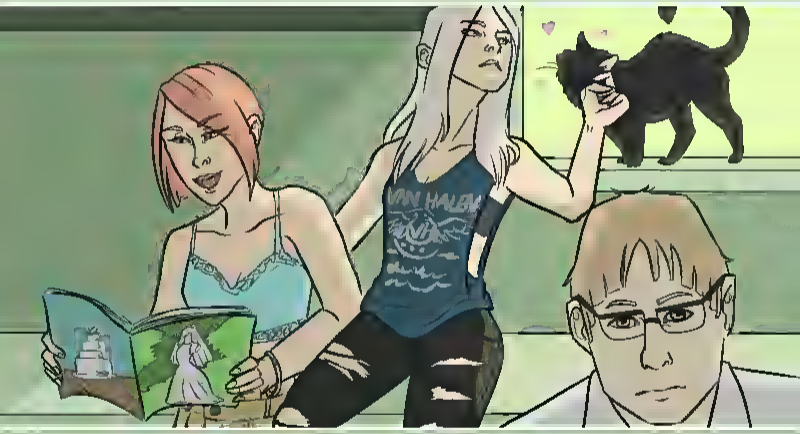
And Dean wan't because she daes his homework.

And this one?



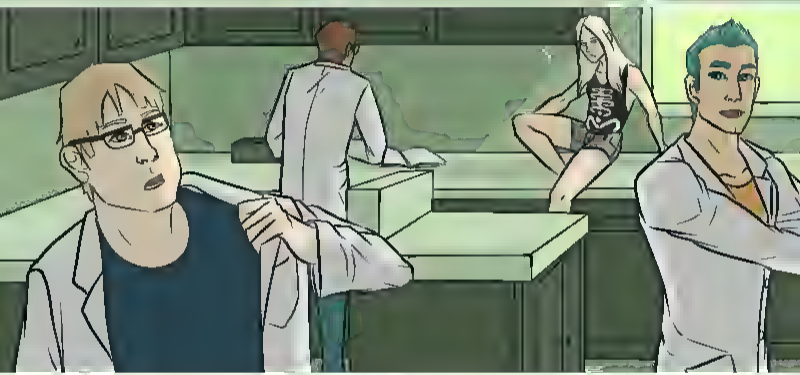
Muscovite schist.

And for some reason her presence encourages the appearance of other creatures as well.

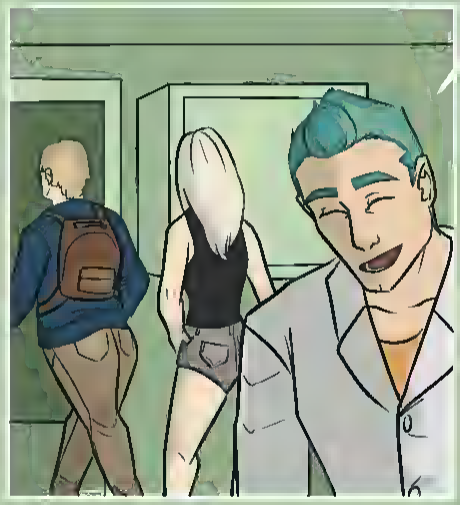


The lab is no longer the sanctuary it once was.

Leaving already, Trev?

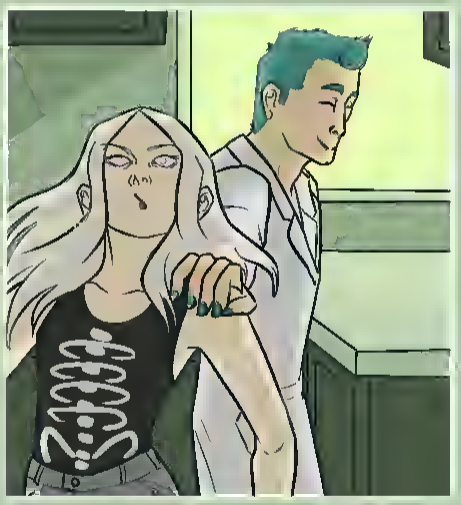


Yes, I'm meeting Lucy for dinner.



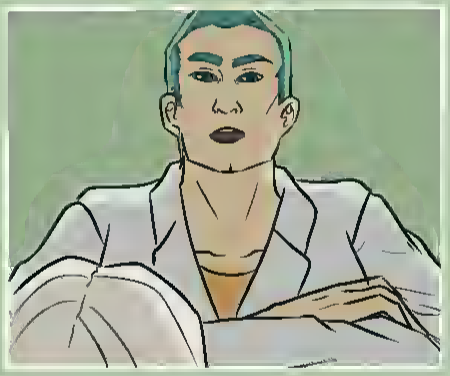
Ok, have fun~

Where do you think you're going?



I'm going to follow him.

You can't, he's meeting his girlfriend.



So?

So you can't just -

Look, why are you hanging around him, anyway?

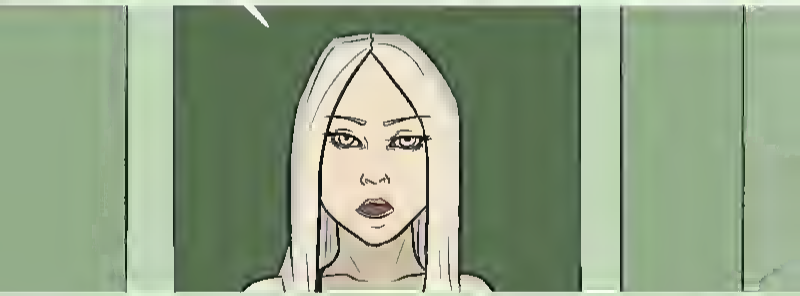
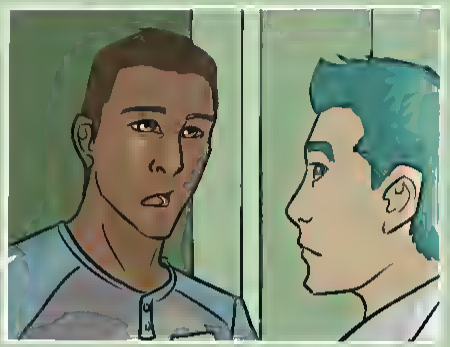
Why?



Because I want to use his body, of course.

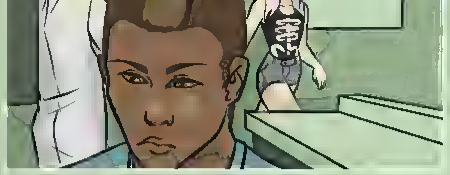
Why am I just... not surprised by that answer?

Ok, Shay
listen -



...I organized your appliances for you.

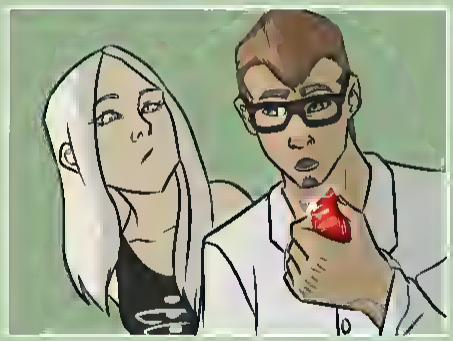
Um, thanks..



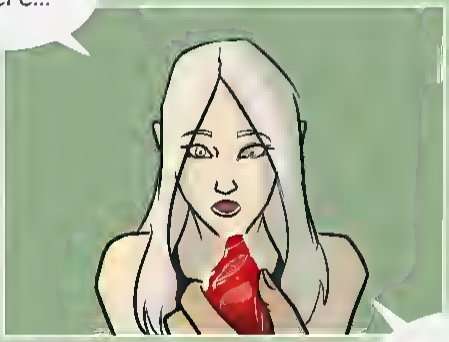
Hey, Shay?

Can you come here a sec?

Do you know what this is?

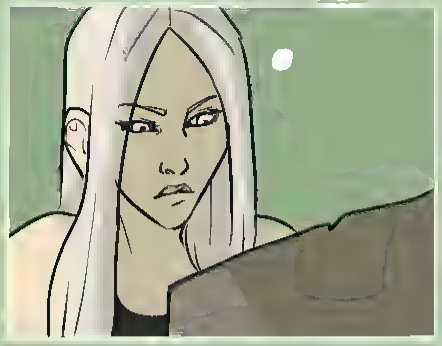


Where...

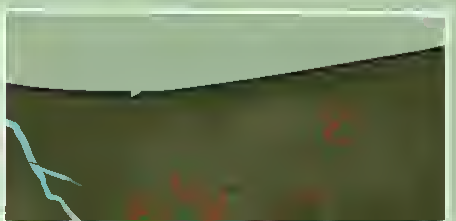


...did you find this?

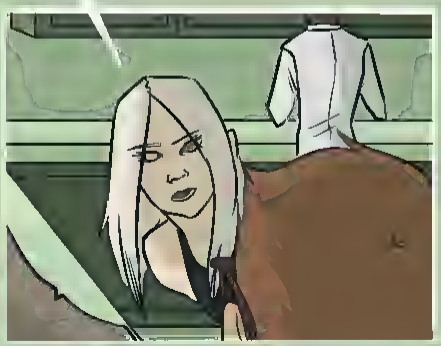
I just...
...found it in this area.
That's where I did that ritual the other night...



But I've never seen that type of crystal around there...



Take me there.



I can, but only at night.

We're going tonight.

Be ready.
